

State Rep Glenn Cordelli (R-Tuftonboro)

State Representative Glenn Cordelli is starting his 5th term in the NH House of Representatives representing Carroll County District 4. Glenn currently is a member of the House Republican Leadership Team as Assistant Republican Leader.

He has been on the Education Committee in each term and has served on several study committees including the 2018 Education Funding Study Committee. He has been a leader in the House on student/teacher privacy and school choice issues.

Glenn has been House representative to the N.H. Home Education Advisory Council for two terms and was appointed to the New Hampshire State Advisory Committee on the Education of Children/Students with Disabilities. He previously was one of the tri-chairs of the House Republican Alliance (HRA).

Glenn lives in Tuftonboro with his wife, Christine, They have 3 grown children.